Club Policies

Safeguarding Policy

J'Amies Gymnastics Academy (JGA) recognises that all children and young people have a right to protection and that the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults is paramount. JGA acknowledges their duty of care to safeguard and promote the health, safety and welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults by ensuring safeguarding practice reflects and complies with best practice and British Gymnastics (BG) policies.

The academy will endeavour to promote the highest standards of care for all members, staff and officials by:

- The adoption of BG health, safety, and welfare policies
- The adoption of BG policies for the protection of children and adults at risk
- The appointment of a welfare officer (Child Protection Officer) to whom grievances or complaints can be made confidentially. For more information refer to: JGA Welfare
- Ensuring that staff are suitably trained in Child Protection and Health, Safety, and welfare issues
- Ensuring that coaches and officials have been screened to confirm their suitability to work with children. Where appropriate this will include DBS disclosure
- Ensuring that best coaching practice guidelines are always followed
- Ensuring that grievances or complaints are dealt with promptly and in accordance with grievance procedures
- Ensuring that the minimum of two responsible adults are present at all training sessions or events
- Ensuring that the participants and/or parents are aware of the purpose of videoing, filming or photography during training or events. For more information refer to: JGA Photography & Use of Imagery Policy
- Having a zero-tolerance level or poor practice, bullying or any potential form of abuse. For more information refer to: JGA Anti-Bullying policy
- Encouraging an environment where gymnasts, staff, volunteers and parents can raise any concerns without fear of negative repercussions
- Recognising that certain children are more vulnerable and that all children regardless of age, gender, ethnicity, ability or disability, religion or beliefs, sexual orientation, parental status or socio/economic background have a right to be protected from abuse
- Ensuring that all coaches, members and parents are aware of the Club Codes of Conduct including social media guidelines. For more information refer to: JGA Codes of Conduct

JGA Welfare

At JGA, we promise to:

- Provide a safe and nurturing environment for our gymnasts to be happy and successful.
- Bring together proactive and positive coaches and support staff who work as a team to achieve the very best practice and care for our gymnasts.

Meet our Welfare Officers

Our Welfare Officers are Jade & Dawn. Jade is also our Operations Manager however Dawn is an outside volunteer. Both can be contacted confidentially via email to welfare@jgagroup.co.uk

Both are responsible for safeguarding and promoting welfare of young people within the club and provides support and advice in the implementation of procedures that safeguard and promote the welfare of children at J'amies Gymnastics Academy.

Jade and Dawn both hold up to date British Gymnastics membership, a DBS check and both Safeguarding and Protecting Children and Time to Listen qualifications.

JGA Photography & Use of Imagery Policy

In order for J'Amies Gymnastics Academy to comply with data protection regulations, it is necessary to obtain your consent to use your image or words for the purpose of promoting the club, this would have been done at the first instance of setting up an account

How we may use your photograph, film and words

J'Amies Gymnastics Academy may use your photograph, film and words for the purposes of promotion, education and development of the club/sport e.g. to publicise events, in newspaper articles, magazines and other media such as websites, information leaflets, JGA Social Media platforms, electronic newsletters and presentations

What if I change my mind?

Once an article or image is published and in circulation (e.g. newsletters, website images) it can be copied and used by others. However, you can contact us by putting your request in via email to info@jgagroup.co.uk, at any point and ask us not to use your image or words for any new purposes. We will comply with this request and will also do our best to stop others using your image or words, although we cannot guarantee this. Please note that we will be unable to remove images that have already been used in publications or publicity material.

How long will the club retain my images?

If you do not withdraw your consent in writing, we will retain any images for three years. After three years, images will be reviewed and will be deleted unless they are considered to be of historical importance to the club and are retained as part of the club's archive. By agreeing to the consent, you are agreeing to J'Amies Gymnastics Academy using images and words for coaching purposes and to promote JGA in the press, website, leaflets, newsletter, presentations and social media.

Events hosted by JGA (End of Term Displays and Competitions)

For any event hosted by JGA we do allow for parents/guardians to take pictures/videos. In the interests of child protection, photographs and video may only be taken in accordance with conditions set by British Gymnastics. Please see a link below of the full terms and conditions, In that photos may only be taken for personal use. Unless specifically accredited to do so, you may not take photos for sale, other commercial use or for publication in printed or electronic form, such as on websites. By signing this you agree to this condition.

JGA Anti-Bullying Policy

This policy sets out how we at J'Amies Gymnastics Academy (JGA) feel about bullying, what we'll do to tackle it and how we'll support children and young people who experience or display bullying behaviour.

Overall principal

- JGA does not, and will not, tolerate bullying of any kind
- All forms of bullying will be acted upon
- Everybody in the club has a responsibility to work together to stop bullying
- Bullying can include online as well as offline behaviour

Bullying behaviour can include

- Physically pushing
- Kicking, hitting, pinching etc.
- Name calling, spreading rumours, persistent teasing, and humiliation or the continual ignoring of others
- Posting of derogatory or abusive comments, videos, or images on social media
- Racial, homophobic, transphobic, or sexist comments, taunts, or gestures
- Sexual comments, suggestions, or behaviour
- Unwanted physical contact

JGA promise to

- Recognise its duty of care and responsibility to safeguard all members from harm
- Promote and implement this anti-bullying policy in addition to our safeguarding policy and procedures
- Ensure that bullying behaviour is not tolerated or condoned
- Require all members of the club to adhere to this policy
- Take action to investigate and respond to any reports of bullying
- Encourage and facilitate young people to play an active part in developing and adopting a code of conduct for behaviour
- Ensure that coaches and staff are given access to information, guidance and training on bullying

Supporting children and young people:

- JGA will let children know who will listen to and support them
- We'll create an "open door" ethos where children feel confident to talk to an adult about bullying behaviour or any other issue that affects them
- We'll make sure children are aware of helpline numbers
- Anyone who reports an incident of bullying will be listened to carefully and reports will be taken seriously
- Any reported experience of bullying behaviour will be investigated and will involve listening carefully to all those involved
- Children experiencing bullying behaviour will be supported and helped to uphold their right to participate in a safe environment
- Those who display bullying behaviour will be supported and encouraged to develop better relationships
- We'll make sure that sanctions are proportionate and fair

Supporting parents/guardians:

- Parents or guardians will be advised of the club bullying policy and practice
- Any experience of bullying behaviour will be discussed with the child's parents or guardians
- Parents will be consulted on action to be taken (for both victim and bully) and we'll agree on these actions together
- Information and advice on coping with bullying will be made available
- Support will be offered to parents, including information from other agencies or support lines

Each coach, and member of staff will:

- Encourage individuals to speak out about bullying behaviour
- Respect the feelings and views of others
- Recognise that everyone is important and equal, and that our differences make each of us special and worthy of being valued
- Show appreciation of others by acknowledging individual qualities, contributions and progress
- Report incidents of bullying behaviour they see – by doing nothing you are condoning the behaviour

If you have any concerns about bullying behaviour in the club, please contact the club Welfare Officer via email to welfare@jgagroup.co.uk

JGA Safe Recruitment Policy

J'Amies Gymnastics Academy recognizes that its coaches and volunteers are committed, dedicated individuals who work within the club for commendable reasons. However, all reasonable steps must be taken to ensure that unsuitable individuals, or individuals with inappropriate motivation, are prevented from working with children.

For this reason, JGA fully adheres to the British Gymnastics Child Protection Policy on Safer Recruitment. A Copy of which is available on the British Gymnastics Website.

All potential coaches and volunteers will be required to produce the following:

- Name, address and telephone number
- National Insurance Number
- Contact details of at least 2 referees
- For Coaches - Evidence of qualifications
- Appropriate evidence to enable a full DBS to be completed

In addition to this, the candidate will be expected to submit their CV and complete an application form. They will then be invited to attend an informal interview at one of our academies. If successful, the candidate will be informed by email. If the offer is accepted, we will issue a contract and provide our policies/code of conduct. The individual will be required to read and sign these and return them to JGA.

The individual will also be required to become a member with British Gymnastics.

All volunteers, helpers and coaches will be required to sign an agreement to abide by the club's policies and Code of Conduct. Failure to adhere to these will result in disciplinary action which is outlined in the Club's disciplinary policy.

All JGA coaches and staff will undergo a probationary period the length of which will be provided in writing upon appointment.

JGA Senior Management will continue to monitor standards of coaching and identify any training needs and plan development opportunities on an individual basis.
